

Why is Osprey right for your business?

Our unique collaboration has yielded many industry leading uses of our application.

- As a liquor retailer you buy by the case yet you sell by the bottle, pack, and case - yes, we do that and we tie it back to cases for ordering.
- Age Verification integration (www.legalagesoftware.com)
- Can customer tracking yield higher sales and profits?
- Is it time for perpetual inventory?
- By now you are saying "Wow!" But there is more! We have a complete wireless application that includes monitoring, inventory, receiving, purchasing, queue busting, and more...
